VK chat between Vlad and a girl

stiglitzshch • October 02, 2019

March 25 2018. The girl found Vlad in VK group “The world of maniacs and serial killers”, the most popular VK TCC page, and wrote him. Vlad deleted their chat on his page but the girl agreed to show it (some messages are missed).

G: I don’t know… Just a conversation for no reason. Tell me something, how was your day, for example?

V: Oh yes. It was freaking interesting! I woke up at 5:15, made a breakfast and fucked up 12 hours in front of my computer. On weekdays I have classes from 9:30 to 16:30, and then I fuck up the rest of day in front of my computer. Interesting? 362 days a year like this.

G: Hm… there is nothing more to add. It can be said, it’s the same with me, I only add to that a fever of 38 and my sick leave. So, where do you study?

V: KPC

G: Decode, please :))

V: Chinese Communist Party (the same first letters as in the name of his college - КПК)

V: Why did you write me?

V: What? There are a couple of millions people like me only in this social network.

G: What do I care about those people, if I met you? It’s weird that you are so prejudiced about it. Didn’t anyone ever write you here?

V: No. Why would anyone write me? I’ll answer you now - my empathy is the lowest of the low. I think I’m a half psychopath.

V: I have a little interest in communicating with people. All the feelings are lie, deception, bullshit.

G: When it’s more interesting to see it :))

V: See what?

G: See what kind of psychopath you are :)

V: I'm a boring piece of shit in life

G: Why?

V: Probably because of my thoughts

G: What's wrong with them?

V: It's better to hide them from myself. For example, I want to blow my brains out with a shotgun. It would be hella cool.

V: No. It would be so beautiful to make the whole floor dirty with my brains. If you use 12-gauge the rest of your head will look like a beautiful flower. Romantically.

G: It would be a gift for the faith of heart :))

V: Artistry

G: Not bad, well, yeah. What else?

V: This is exactly what I'm fixated on. Actually VK is not the best messenger for a conversation like this one.

G: But I like it. Sometimes it's good to get my mind off and listen thoughts of others, that aren't less attractive :))

V: Perhaps

V: Here. Beautiful?

V: gore photo (to see the photo click here 18+)

V: What is the number of your land? (means adress)

G: What?

V: Forget. The paranoia

V: What city you are from?

G: Sorry, I don't reveal almost nothing about myself, because… I think, it's not needed.

V: Yes. That's right, an anonymous communication is more interesting.

V: Only fuckers around me in life

G: There are all kinds of people in life, actually

V: Only fuckers, and the thoughts of shooting them all

V: But it’s BAD to KILL people. I just expressed my subjective opinion and I don’t call for killing.

G: In a certain moment in their lives something will befall them, so don’t worry, they will get a punishment :))

V: Yep. A shotgun blast in the fucking face.

G: More likely disease will befall them, what will be agonizingly for some of them :))

V: Nothing will be so agonizingly like a couple stabbings in a stomach

G: But admit it’s more unpleasant to feel that something eats you from inside

V: Inside me only my insides

G: A disease won’t agree with you

V: I don’t really understand you

G: Well, let’s not [talk about it] then

G: We all have our own perceptions of torments

V: Well, bye. I don’t need conversations.

G: Sure?

V: According to the pages you follow you’re “lonely”, you want to find some friend to share your thoughts with. I don’t fucking need nobody. I know I will never have friends/girlfriend. And you know what? I don’t give a fuck.

G: It's very subjective to judge by following pages in 21st century

G: But well it's your choice
